THOSE GRAY UNIFORMS.

Trouble About Suits for the First Before the War.

tore the War.

Lieutemant-Colonel George Wayne Anderson is just now troubled by an exceedingly knotty question, the solution of which is saddled upon him through no fault of his own.

About the beginning of the year a contract was entered into between Mesars, Jacob Reid & Sons of Philadelphia, and the seven captains of the First Regiment providing that 300 gray uniforms should be delivered in Richmond seventy days after the measure of the men was taken, the same to be subject to inspection before being received.

The uniforms were not ready for delivery at the time mentioned, and the tailors were grayled an extension of the period by Col. H. C. Jones, Meanwhile Col. Jones resigned and Col. George Wayne Anderson assumed command, which however, was not until four of the seven companies had been mustered into service, so that Col. Anderson was never in command of more than three companies.

On June 9th Col. Anderson received a companies.

On June 9th Col. Anderson received a letter from Reid & Sons, stating that the uniforms were all ready for shipment. He immediately sat down and wrote to the Philadelphia firm in which he explained the situation; drew attention to the fact that he himself knew nothing of the contract except in the most general ferms, and did not feel that he had the right to receive the uniforms. He emphasized, however, that he was most singless to see, as for as he could, that the regiment kept all of its obligations, both legal and moral.

that the regiment kept all of its obligations, both legal and moral.

He suggested to the firm that they allow the matter to rest until fall, when lit was possible that the companies might be home, or the probable duration of the war determined upon. Should they be no wiser then than now the question might be taken up for final settlement.

Col. Anderson has had considerable trains only, 40 cents, correspondence and also personal interviews with Reid & Sons, but nothing has yet been decaded upon. He has completed a rough draft of a letter to the rour captains of the regiment, who are absent, explaining to them all the dreumstances. He has received a letter from one of the captains, in which he states that as the uniforms were not furnished at the time specified he supposed the contract was cancelled. One ACADEMY CLASS.

THEY COULD NOT GET TOGETHER.

The Republicans Fail to Settle Their Party Troubles.

COL. WICKHAM REMAINED FIRM.

He Refused to Dissolve His Committee Until Reorganization Should Take Place - Various Propositions Made and Rejected.

The State Republican Executive Com-mittee continued its sessions at Murphy's Hotel yesterday and considered various propositions looking to bringing the two rivals factions of the party logether. No agreement could be reached and an No agreement could be reached and an adjournment was taken without having accomplished anything. The stumbling block was the demand of the Agnew committee that Colonel Wickham dissolve his organization before steps should be taken to form a new committee. Colonel Wickham would not agree to this and was willing only to dissolve his committee when the reorganization should be effected.

Suggestions were made looking to hav-effected.

Suggestions were made looking to having the National Republican Committee or the Republican Congressional Committee settie the dispute, but these propositions were not accepted.

THE FIRST PROPUSITION.

On May 17th Colonel Wickham submitted to Mr. Agnew the following proposition at the Edutt House in Washington:

mitted to Mr. Agines the work of any dispute as the Eublitt House in Washington:

1. There shall be a Congressional District Convention in every district in the State, to be called by the Congressional District Committee of each district, to meet not later man Augus 15, 1878. It the event that any Congressional District Committee of any district fails to issue the call by July 18, 1885, then the Executive Committee (under the Staunton plan of organization), shall issue the call and see to its being carried out.

2. Immediately after the call for the district conventions there shall be called county and city conventions for the purpose of electing delegates thereto. These conventions shall be called by the county and city conventions of sonstituted prior to August 18, 1891, and in the event of any dispute as to who constitutes the said committees, both shall united in the call. The delegates to these conventions shall be elected by county, ward, magisterial district or precinct massmeetings, as the said committees may decide, and proper notice of time and place shall be given.

In the event that any county or city fail to act within a reasonable time, the said Executive Committee shall issue the proper calls.

3. The new State Committee, as elected at the various district conventions, shall be called to meet immediately after the held, and shall thereupon proceed to elec-the Executive Committee.

The said new State Committee shall itself settle and decide all disputes as to its personel, and in the vent of a con-test as to who constitute the members of the said State Committee from any district, neither contestants nor contestees shall have any voice in the proceed-ings until the contest have been decided.

4. The said Executive Committee re-linguish any right it may have under the plan of organization adopted at Staun-ton to decide disputes and contests as to the members of the new State Comto the members of the new State Com-mittee, leaving the same entirely to the said new State Committee, as provided for in paragraph (3) above.

5. As soon as the reorganization of the State and Executive Committees have been effected, as provided herein, the committees holdings under the Lynchburg plan of organization shall be dissolved and the re-organized committees accepted as the will of the Republican voters in Virginia. THE COMMITTEE'S REPLY.

THE COMMITTEES REP 13.

The committee Thursday night forwarded the following reply:

The Executive Committee of the Republican party of Virginia, having had under consideration the two written propositions recently made to it, the by Colonel William F. Wickham, at the Sublit House, in Washington, D. C., and he other to-night, June 23, 1898, by leave brough its chairmn, Hon. Park Agnew, o make the following suggestions as learing on said propositions looking to the healing of any breaches in the party and its harmonious workings as far a possible: Pirst, That the regular organization of the party, of which the Hon. Park Agnew is the chairman of the State Executive Committee be recognized as such by all Republicans. Second. Upon the assumption stated in the first suggestion above, we accept your first proposition, which is in these words: "Congressional district conventions to be called by stated time" (say to meet not later than August 15th). If Congressional District Committee fails to make call in proper time, the State Executive Committee to issue call, with the following amendments: "That said the following amendments: "That said congressional district conventions shall be called not later than August 15, 1888, to meet not later than the 15th day of September, 1898. Third. Upon like assumption, we amend your second proposition so as to read as follows: "County and city conventions are to be called by the county and city committees as recognized by the regular Republican organization. The time, place, and manner of calling and holding these convenies to be presented in the presented to the reserved. onvetios to be prescribed in the party

tions are fully covered by the existing plan of organization, the highest party law, and this the committee has no right to abrogate, modify, or alter any outs provisions, nor, can it properly re-linguish any power or duty vested in it or imposed upon its members by this law, which was adopted by the last State Convention held at Staunton on the 23d

Convention head at Saudines day of April, 1896.

Fifth That this action is taken by the Republican State Executive Committee in a spirit of harmony, and with the earnest esire and hope on its part that it will ices for Congress in the several district this fall, who will receive the united sur

Hon. Park Agnew. City:
My dear Sir.—I have just received the reply to my propositions looking toward party harmony, submitted to you and by ou to your committee.

you to your committee.

I regret very much to see that your committee object to certain features which I consider essential, viz.:

First. I cannot surrender my present organization until the new organization.

organization until the new organization has been effected.

Second. There should be an agreement that conventions should be held in each Congressional District as provided by the plan of organization adopted at Staunton. Said conventions should be held not later than August 15th, for two very potential reasons. First. To enable the candidates in districts where nominations are made to thoroughly conversitely districts; and second. To enable the new Congressional and State Committees to organize and perfect plans for prosecuting the canvass.

mittees to organize and perfect plans for prosecuting the canvass.

Third. It should be agreed that the county conventions shall be properly called and hold to the end that a fair expression of the will of the majority of Republican voters may be secured.

Fourth. Such county conventions should be called by the chairmen who were recognized as such at the Presidential election held in 1896, since which time there have been no conventions at which under the plan of organization adopted at Staunton such chairmen could have been chosen.

Fourth There should be an agreement that the new State Committee shall meet immediately after the meeting of the list Congressional convention and proceed to its organization.

Fifth The new committee shall be the judge of its own members, and no districts from which there are contests shall have a voice until the contests are seated.

I regret that I cannot accept the proposition you have made, but trust that an agreement can be reached on some such basis as above outlined, one which seems to me fair to both factions of our party and which does not abrogate, modify or alter any organic party law.

First. We are willing to agree that there should be a convention held in each Congressional district at the time stated in your communication.

Second. We are willing to agree, in fact, we would insist upon it, that the county and city conventions shall be properly called and held and so conducted in order that the will of a majority of the Republican voters should be ascertained and expressed.

Third. We are clearly of opinion that county and city conventions or meetings should be called by the chairman, duly recognized by the regular organization of the party.

Fourth. We are willing to agree that when the last Coungressional convention is held, promptly thereafter, the new State Committee should meet and proceed to organize and elect a State Executive Committee, as the party law provides.

The foregoing suggestion are made in vides.

The foregoing suggestion are made in conenction with the resolutions adopted by the State Executive Committee at its meeting held last night, a copy of which meeting held last night, a copy of which was furnished you.

In conclusion, we have to express our surprise and regret that you could not see you way clear to take the first essential step toward the restoration of peace and harmony by the abandonment of your dual organization in this State.

Our State Committee feel it to be an imperative duty incumbent upon them to observe the party law in all its requirements, as contained in the plan of organization adopted in the State convention held in Stanuton in April, 1886.

We sincerely hope mature consideration may yet lead you to notify the chairman of the party of your acceptance of these suggestions, to the end that we may have your cordial support in our efforts for party success in the campaign this fall for Congressional candidates in every district of Virginia.

My Dear Sir:—I have your communication of to-day in reply to mine of last night, and am sorry to see that we are still so wide apart.

I still think that the agreement on our part that the reorganization of the party shall be had under the auspices of your committee, with certain restrictions, and that immediately after such reorganiza-tion we will cease to exist, is as much as we could reasonably be expected to yield. I have learned that immediately after the adoption of your communication by your committee and before I received it, your committee adjourned sine die, there-by rendering it impossible for me to com-

WORLD'S MARKETS AT OUR COMMANDS

Business Continues Steadily to Improve Despite the War.

EXPORTS REMARKABLY LARGE. Wheat Rises Because Foreign Demand is Not Yet supplied-The War Has

No Effect Either Way on Business.

NEW YORK, June 24.—R. G. Dun & Company's Weekly Review of Trade will say to-morrow:

Very little of the new business seen, in proportion to the aggregate has been caused by the war. Not any discoverable by ordinary tests has been prevented by war. Neither has the collapse of the wheat speculation caused the expected decrease of ships for exports concontinue remarkably large. Gold comes or does not come as we want it, the world's markets being evidently at our command.

The world's need of grain is greater than ever and 213 821 567 bushels of wheat and 207,317,483 bushels of corn have gone abroad already. Corn was steady without much fluctuation, exports being 2,574,723 bushels for the week against 1,600,922 last year.

Other grain, exports have been unueutly heavy. The industries at the season when stoppages, are being expected, maintain production surprisingly. There are very few interruptions on account of labor, and wage scales for the coming year have nearly all been amicably settled.

THE IRON INDUSTRY.

The iron industry is very dull at the East, with complaint that prices do not rise, but at Pittsburg and the West the works are geing more business consantly, and are even competing so sharply that prices are slightly lower for bars, cut nails, steel rails and gray forge, while Southern iron is also offered lower there and at the East.

The enormous demand from agricultural regions for implements, fencing, cars, railway equipment and all sorts of building materials is the noteworthy feature of this remarkable year.

Wool is stronger a shade. Cotton has weakened three-sixteenths, with excellent crop prospects, but a larger demand for goods is seen, though not as yet enough to cause any advance in prices. THE IRON INDUSTRY.
